

Galleries of Justice Museum
The Lace Market
Nottingham NG1 1HN
www.galleriesofjustice.org.uk

Contact: Helen Shepherd
T: 0115 952 0555
helen.shepherd@galleriesofjustice.org.uk

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

Half term at The Galleries of Justice Museum!

13th-21st February 2010

Galleries keeper of secrets unlocks the chamber of crime:

Horrible history expert, Bev Baker will take you on a fascinating tour of the curious cabinets of crime exhibition and for the first time ever will reveal the secrets of Nottingham's Horrible History, normally kept under lock and key*

Hear grizzly tales about the gruesome items laid out before your very eyes including:

Key items such as the original execution gallows doors where 99 condemned prisoners lost their lives and a personal possession owned by the victim of one of the Victorian's most gruesome murders and many many more

*As part of the ticket price throughout the week of half term at various times throughout the day- first come first served

Notes to editor

- Prices start at £6.75 for children and £8.75 for adults.
- WANTED! Robin Hood: The Legendary Outlaw Returns! Join in our entertaining tour where our Villainous Sheriff of Nottingham puts Robin Hood on trial. Will our folklore hero escape?
- For opportunities for an interview or to photograph the trial please contact Helen Shepherd on 0115 952 0555 or email helen.shepherd@galleriesofjustice.org.uk
- Based at Nottingham's old courthouse and gaol, there are many ways to explore the Galleries of Justice Museum, with free exhibitions, audio & performance led tours and a themed café. For more information www.galleriesofjusticemuseum.org.uk / call 0115 952 0555
- The Galleries of Justice Museum is a registered charity number 1030554 for more information on the work we do please visit www.nccl.org.uk

